

UAI cut-offs for Main Round offers 2009 admissions

Key to cut-offs

For applicants selected on the basis of their 2008 Australian Year 12 results, institutions have released the lowest Universities Admission Index (UAI) required for selection into each course. These minimum UAIs or cut-offs are shown in the following table.

All courses (with the exception of one domestic fee-paying or DFEE course) are Commonwealth-supported place (CSP) courses.

The cut-offs apply to domestic applicants only; the cut-offs for international applicants may differ from those shown.

Some current Year 12 applicants may receive an offer to a course even though they have a UAI below the UAI published as the cut-off for the course. In such cases, the institution concerned has used other selection criteria in addition to or instead of the UAI. The institution entries in Part 2 of the UAC 2009 Guide give further information.

For non-current Year 12 applicants, the UAI cut-offs do not generally apply. Institutions may take any or all of the following into account when considering your application – tertiary studies, secondary studies, post-secondary studies and other relevant factors such as employment history and special circumstances.

If N/A appears instead of a cut-off, a cut-off is not applicable because either selection criteria other than or in addition to the UAI are used or the course is not offered to 2008 Year 12 applicants.

Vacancies

A letter ‘V’ shown in brackets after the cut-off indicates that some places may be available in the Late Round. Vacancies could also arise in some courses not marked ‘V’. This will not be known until after acceptances to Main Round offers have been received and no guarantee is given that further offers will be made.

If you applied for a course marked with a ‘V’ and you were not made an offer, your qualifications may not have been sufficient to gain entry into the course in this round.

Do not rely on receiving a Late Round offer. If you have a Main Round offer, you are advised to accept that offer. Even if you have accepted an earlier offer, you will automatically be considered in the Late Round for higher preference courses.

Late cancelled courses

Some courses may have been cancelled by institutions just prior to the Main Round. A list of these late cancelled courses appears with the UAI cut-off lists. If you applied to one of these courses, contact the relevant institution for further information.
